THOUGHTS ON THE MARRAKESH TREATY

Eszter Anita Sándor

The Marrakesh Treaty of WIPO aims to help the blind and visually impaired persons to get books in accessible formats by establishing a set of limitations and exceptions to traditional copyright law. This treaty has already been implemented in EU law which has triggered changes in national law. The author gives an overview in the article about the provisions of the Marrakesh Treaty and EU's Directive and Regulation for the implementation of the above mentioned Treaty and what the consequences in Hungarian law have been.

THE (RE)INTERPRETATION OF THE QUOTATION EXCEPTION IN THE SCOPE OF COPYRIGHT LAW

Kornél Kohod

This paper examines the versatility of the quotation exception. The first chapter gives a small introduction to the rights which are impacted by quotation. The second chapter explores how the quotation exception is regulated in Hungary and at an international level, specifically in the European Union, with a strong emphasis on the case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union. This chapter also displays how quotation works with designs in the European Union. The fourth chapter aims to exemplify how quotation works in certain fields of arts, while the last one examines what kind of requirements are necessary for a legally proper quotation.
